Dear

The Gaming Authority has received your letter dated August 13th 2012 as a response to our letter dated June 13th 2012.

I appreciate you confirming by letter that the website of your client does not meet our prioritisation criteria. I also appreciate your client taking the necessary measures to prevent meeting one of the three prioritisation criteria.

Research, undertaken on September 25th 2012, has shown that the website of your client,  doesn't meet our prioritisation criteria and therefore we will not focus our attention on this website and on your client's activities at this moment.

As written in our letter correspondence our attention will be focused on offerors of illegal games of chance through Internet, aimed at the Dutch market, that meet (one of) the three prioritisation criteria. These offerors will be faced with the Gaming Authority's enforcement measures.

The company mentioned on the website is  Unfortunately I have not received any confirmation that this is the owner/offeror behind this website. Therefore I would like to request you to reveal the contact information of your client, such as the name of the company and the responsible parties/persons and the address and location. On basis of article 5:16 Algemeen Wet Bestuursrecht (AWB) the Gaming Authority is authorized to require information, including the (contact)details of your client.

If you have any other questions regarding this letter, don't hesitate to contact us.
